PIE IN THE FACE CREATES FUN AT NORTH SCOTTSDALE NETWORKING GROUP

North Scottsdale LeTip Concludes their Membership Drive

LeTip North Scottsdale, a business leads and networking group, completed a Membership Drive Competition Wednesday by awarding the winning member, Dr. Alan Houfek the opportunity to throw a pie in the face of the Membership Drive Chair, Steve Radonich.

Larry Bofman, the chapter's President commented "Although we are serious networkers and business owners, we like to have fun growing our chapter. So our membership chair, Steve Radonich, suggested that we have a membership competition where the winner who brought in the most guests who joined our group would have an opportunity to do something we all have wanted to do at do at some point in our lives. Anyone who has ever watched the three stooges has seen them throw a pie in someone's face. The result of our membership drive is that we brought in 12 guests with 4 joining our group. We think that's a fun way to grow."

"Members were motivated to bring guests and encourage them to join just because they were competing for the opportunity to throw a pie in my face. I'm not sure why they were so excited at the opportunity." stated Steve Radonich sardonically.

LeTip North Scottsdale meets weekly on Wednesdays at 7:00 a.m. for breakfast at Paradise Bakery, 8777 N. Scottsdale Road and currently has 21 business professionals as members.
